

How to Request Certificates after Graduation

1. How to request certificates

DBS alumni can request copies of the 'Certificate of Graduation' and/ or 'Academic Transcript'. Issuance Fee per copy will be:

Japanese version: 300 yen, English version: 500 yen

DBS alumni may request these copies either in person at DBS or by mail. For details, please see below.

1.1 Requesting certificates in person

In this case, you must complete the issuance fee at the automatic machine at Kambaikan 2F and submit the receipt/ request form issued by the machine to the DBS Office. For how to pay the issuance fee, please see "How to Pay the Issuance Fee at an Automated Certificate Issuing Machine as a Non-current Student" at the end of this document.

1.2 Requesting certificates by mail

In this case, please send the request form (page 3) to the DBS office with the required fee including the mailing cost.

Please send the following items to the DBS Office:

1. Completed 'Request for Additional Certificates' Form (page 3)
2. Issuance fees and shipping fee in International Reply Coupons (IRCs) (for request from overseas) or Japanese stamps. (Please see "Important notes" below for further details.)

* International Reply Coupons are exchangeable to Japanese stamps at a post office in Japan. Please enclose a sufficient amount of IRCs with your request letter.

If the post office in your country isn't able to issue International Reply Coupons, you are required to wire transfer the mailing cost to the University. In this case, please contact the DBS Office at ji-gmba@mail.doshisha.ac.jp.

Important notes:

- I. If you are requesting certificates from within Japan, please include a self-addressed and stamped envelope with the request form and the required issuance fee (in Japanese stamps).
- II. If you wish to receive certificates from abroad, please include enough International Reply Coupons (IRCs) to cover the total of amount of the issuance fee and shipping fee.
- III. If the value of the IRCs or Japanese stamps you have enclosed with your request is insufficient to cover shipping costs, we cannot send the certificates to you and will ask you to send us additional IRCs or stamps to cover the remaining cost before mailing out the certificates. Please make sure to check the exact shipping cost and enclose a sufficient amount of IRCs or Japanese stamps with your request.

How to Pay the Issuance Fee at an Automated Certificate Issuing Machine as a Non-current Student

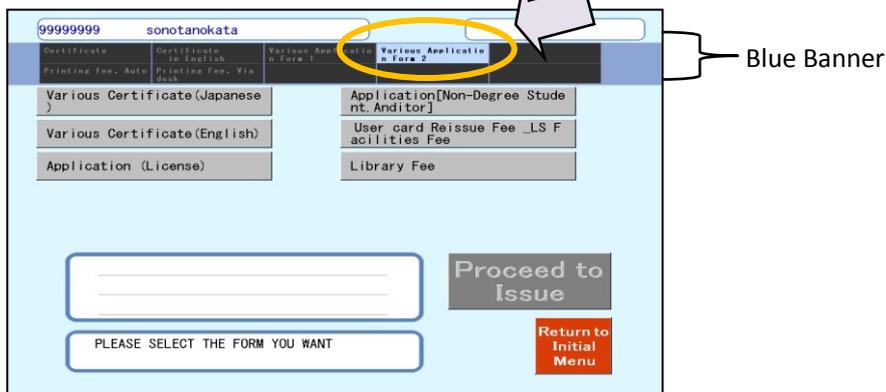

① Press “English” for English Menu:

② Select “The Other”:

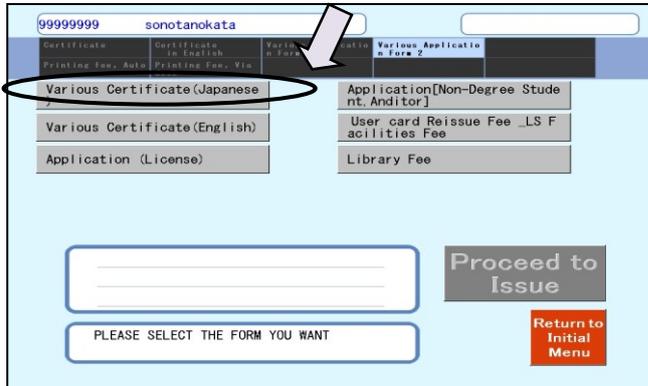

③ Select “Various Application Forms” in the upper blue banner. The following menu will show up:

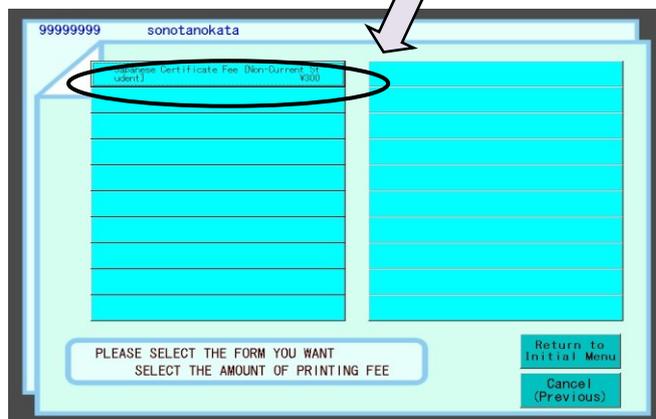

Note:

The following images from ④ to ⑥ show an example of the process for paying the issuing fee for certificates in Japanese.

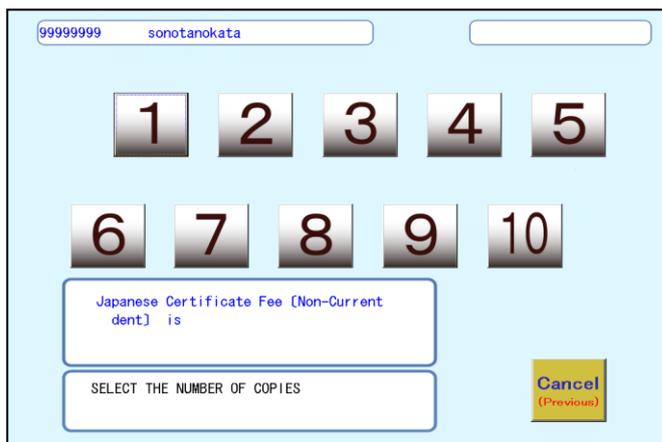

④ Select “Various Certificate (Japanese)”:

⑤ Select “Japanese Certificate Fee (Non-Current Students) ¥300”:

⑥ Select the number of certificates you need to receive and the screen will automatically return to ④:

If you need to pay the fee for any other certificates, please repeat the process from ④ to ⑥.

- ⑦ After you select all the necessary certificates, press “Proceed to Issue”:

The screenshot shows a machine interface with a light blue background. At the top, there are two input fields: the first contains '99999999' and the second contains 'sonotanokata'. Below these are several menu items for certificates and applications, including 'Various Certificate (Japanese)', 'Various Certificate (English)', 'Application (License)', 'Application [Non-Degree Student, Auditor]', 'User card Reissue Fee & LS Facilities Fee', and 'Library Fee'. At the bottom left, there is a summary box for 'Japanese Certificate' showing '1 copies' and '¥300'. In the center, a blue button with white text says 'Proceed to Issue', which is circled in blue. To its right is a red button with white text that says 'Return to Initial Menu'. Below the 'Proceed to Issue' button, there is a white box with black text that reads: 'YOU CAN SELECT MORE CERTIFICATES PRESS THE PUBLICATION BUTTON TO FINISH'. A large grey arrow points from the right side of the screen towards the 'Proceed to Issue' button.

- ⑧ Pay the fee in cash and receive the receipt/ request form from the machine.
- ⑨ Bring the receipt/ request form (an application form for various certificates will be printed on the same page as the receipt) to the DBS office.
