

Global Business and Management Studies, known as the Doshisha Global MBA, is a two-year full-time MBA program conducted entirely in English at Doshisha University in Kyoto, Japan. Through our international educational environment and an innovative curriculum, we encourage our students to cultivate the knowledge and skills necessary to take leadership in a dynamic and interconnected world.

Our aim is to prepare future business leaders who are willing and able to respond effectively to the emerging needs of the increasingly diverse groups of people participating in the global economy. Doshisha Business School's Global Business and Management Studies offers a unique experience to students and professors willing to work in partnership when exploring - and challenging - traditions and trends in global business and management.

International Environment

Join a diverse class of students from around the globe – connect with alumni and current students from more than 60 countries. Since its inception, a striking feature of the Doshisha Global MBA has been the diversity of the people who make our MBA experience special. The students we work with come from a wide variety of backgrounds. Correspondingly, we welcome applications from aspiring and inspiring individuals regardless of gender, ethnicity, religion, or nationality.

Student Enrollment by Region (2009 – 2018)

Learning Facilities

The Business School is located in the modern Kambaikan Building on Doshisha's Imadegawa campus, just a five-minute walk from Kyoto Imperial Palace. Our facilities include classrooms, project rooms, lounges, and the business school library. The lounges, project rooms, and library are open to MBA students 24/7, 365 days a year.

Library

Project Room

Classroom

Doshisha Learning Commons

Our Curriculum

Master the management fundamentals necessary as a business leader in our core subjects before shifting to practical elective courses designed to stimulate deep insights into specific aspects of business in contemporary society.

With the focus areas of Sustainability and Green Business, Culture and Creativity, and Business in Asia, our curriculum lets you cultivate the knowledge and skills necessary to take leadership in an interconnected world. Our international students also have the opportunity to immerse themselves in Japanese language and culture courses for free at the University Center for Japanese Language and Culture.

Curriculum Learn More

Japan-related Job Opportunities

For those interested in working in Japan or for a Japanese company overseas, the Global MBA provides practical training and advice on job hunting in Japan, and access to Japanese language courses (matched to each student's Japanese level) offered by the university's Center for Japanese Language and Culture free of charge.

Careers Learn More

As Doshisha Business School is home to both Global and Japanese MBA programs, Doshisha Business School students with sufficient language proficiency can take some classes in both programs. This provides a great opportunity to interact with Japanese MBA students, most of whom are full-time managers in Kansai companies, and encourage exchange between the two programs.

Preliminary Application

If you are interested in applying to our program but would like to consult with us first, we invite you to submit a preliminary application. The preliminary application is designed to help you learn about our program, help us learn about you, and assist you with your formal application should you decide to apply.

There is no fee for submitting a preliminary application; nor is there any commitment from the side of the applicant during the preliminary application process. The preliminary application form is quick and easy to complete. The preliminary application form is available for download on our website during the admissions cycle.

Request a free consultation with one of our faculty members!

Register Now!