Doshisha Business School

GLOBAL MBA
Master's Degree Program, Global Business and Management Studies
Beyond ‘Business As Usual’

Established in 1875, Doshisha University is widely recognized as one of Japan’s top comprehensive universities, with a distinguished history of education based on founder Joseph Hardy Neesima’s philosophy of “education guided by conscience”. Doshisha Business School (DBS) opened in 2004, following a long tradition of successful Kyoto-based global corporations such as Omron, Kyocera, Shimadzu, and Nintendo. Our English-language Global MBA was inaugurated alongside the school’s Japanese MBA in 2009, and following five successful years was strengthened as an independent Global MBA (Global Business and Management Studies) in 2014 with a bolstered dedicated faculty and expanded course offerings. Sharing the vision of our university’s founder, we strongly believe that companies and businesspeople must strive not only for financial success, but also to make a positive social contribution to the world in which we live.

With a focus on sustainability, the Doshisha Global MBA guides students to explore and enquire beyond the established boundaries set by established theories and practices of global business and management to look beyond ‘business as usual’. As they grow into global-minded leaders, students will not only cover the breadth of standard MBA core subjects, but also develop deeper insights from our three focus areas, and hone their analytical prowess through the research component.

Our aim is to prepare future business leaders who are willing and able to respond effectively to the emerging needs of the increasingly diverse groups of people participating in the global economy. Doshisha Business School’s Global Business and Management Studies offers a unique experience to students and professors willing to work in partnership when exploring — and challenging — traditions and trends in global business and management.

Doshisha Business School is located in the beautiful and historic city of Kyoto, within Japan’s “Kansai” region (centered around Kyoto–Osaka–Kobe). Set in picturesque natural surroundings, Kyoto offers an exciting blend of traditional and modern, with 17 UNESCO World Heritage sites, various artistic and spiritual pursuits, a safe and fun nightlife, and much more. The Kansai region is also the industrial heart of Japan, with a large number of manufacturers and numerous R&D centers and high-tech science parks. We encourage students to capitalize on being in this special place with its historic network of innovative and creative industries.

People Hold The Key

Since its inception, a striking feature of the Doshisha Global MBA has been the diversity of the people who make our MBA experience special. The students we work with come from a wide variety of backgrounds: to illustrate, from 2009 to the present year we have welcomed students from seventy countries. Correspondingly, we welcome applications from aspiring and inspiring individuals regardless of gender, ethnicity, nationality, or religion.

If you’re seeking a career boost and would like to make a difference through business, take a good look at the Doshisha Global MBA (Global Business and Management Studies). We look forward to hearing from you.
Program Highlights

Global MBA Focus Areas

Sustainability and Green Business

Drawing on Kyoto’s legacy as birthplace of the Kyoto Protocol, and on the advances of Japanese companies in developing green technologies and adopting sustainable business practices, our Sustainability and Green Business courses provide students with a solid foundation in the theory and practice of managing firms in a sustainable way, including increasing energy efficiency, reducing waste, managing the environmental impact of business, and finding ways to promote sustainability in all aspects of a company’s operations.

Culture and Creativity

Cultural and creative industries — ranging from anime, music, video games, and film to fashion, design, traditional crafts, and cultural tourism — are dynamic sectors in today’s knowledge economy with far reaching economic, social, and political implications. Japanese pop culture, for example, is not just big business; it is considered a form of “soft power” that brings the world closer together.

More broadly, creativity and innovation are increasingly demanded of individuals, companies, and societies in today’s competitive business environment. Global MBA Culture and Creativity courses prepare students to manage successfully in the cultural sector and give them a creative edge that can be applied in any company or industry.

Business in Asia

Accounting for one third of world GDP — greater than that of the United States or the EU — Asia is the most dynamic region of the world economy. And not just as a cheap-labor based producer of manufactured goods; Asian companies are leading innovators and Asian markets for other countries’ products and services are the fastest growing in the world. Asia is a mosaic — of traditional and modern, of diverse histories, geography, cultures, political systems, and business practices. Our Business in Asia courses give students the tools to understand and navigate these various differences and dynamics.

Preparation for Japan-related Job Opportunities

For those interested in working in Japan or for a Japanese company overseas, the Global MBA provides practical training and advice on job hunting in Japan, and access to Japanese language courses offered by the university’s Center for Japanese Language and Culture free of charge.

As Doshisha Business School is home to both Global and Japanese MBA programs, Global MBA students with a suitable level of Japanese are able to take a number of Japanese MBA classes. Japanese students are also encouraged to take some Global MBA courses in English. This provides a great opportunity to interact with Japanese MBA students, most of whom are full-time managers in Kansai companies.

Overseas Partner Universities

Adding another dimension to their experience, students have the opportunity to apply to study at one of our overseas partner universities. We also welcome exchange students from these institutions, adding to the cosmopolitan nature of the Doshisha Global MBA.

Global MBA Curriculum

The Global MBA curriculum at Doshisha Business School is structured to be completed in two years and is designed to give you a solid foundation in the core business subjects, and to allow you to shape your program of study to match your interests by choosing from a broad menu of electives.

To earn a Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree from Global Business and Management Studies at Doshisha Business School, you will be required to complete courses totaling 46 credits as well as successfully complete a master's thesis or research project report.

Most courses are worth 2 credits.

The curriculum is made up of four parts:

- Core (16 credits or more)
- Global Intensive (2 credits or more)
- Electives (16 credits or more)
- Required Courses (8 credits)

Core 16 credits or more

The core consists of 9 courses (2 credits each) that build a foundation of knowledge in the key areas of management. You are required to take at least 8 courses. The core courses are:

Foundation Subjects
- Accounting
- Business Economics
- Finance
- People and Organizations
- Strategic Management
- Operations Management

Perspective Subjects
- Business and Society in the Global Context
- Responsible Leadership in the Global Context

Global Intensive 2 credits or more

These courses are offered in a compressed (typically one-week or two-week) format by renowned visiting professors. You are required to take at least one Global Intensive course.

Electives 16 credits or more

There are two categories of electives:

- Global MBA electives
- Courses taken at overseas partner universities and/or Japanese MBA courses

A. Global MBA Electives

These courses cover a broad range of business subjects, including those in our three focus areas of Sustainability and Green Business, Culture and Creativity, and Business in Asia. All elective courses are open to all students.

Sustainability and Green Business Courses
- Foundations for Sustainable Management
- Green Management in Action
- Environmental Accounting
- Sustainable and Responsible Marketing
- Sustainable Human Resource Management
- Economics for Sustainable Development

Business in Asia Courses
- Understanding Japanese Corporations
- Japanese Business Practices
- Marketing in Asia
- Human Resource Management in Asia
- Investment in Asia
- Operations Management in Asia

Culture and Creativity Courses
- Cultural and Creative Industries
- The Business of Japanese Pop Culture
- The Business of Fashion Industry
- Cultural Tourism
- e-Marketing
- Creativity in Organizations
- Creativity and Communication

Advanced Management Courses
- Business Analysis and Valuation
- Business Law
- Business Research Methods
- Communication and Information Technology
- Knowledge and Innovation Management
- Marketing Research
- Making Sense of the Global Economy
- Innovation Management in Technology-based Industries
- Open Innovation in Technology-based Industries
- Statistics
- Strategic Cost Management
- Strategic Management for Innovation and Change
- Professional Development
- Writing Skills for Effective Communication

B. Courses Taken at Overseas Partner Universities and Japanese MBA Courses

If you apply to spend a term or semester studying at one of our overseas partner universities and/or take courses offered by our sister Japanese MBA program (Japanese Language Proficiency Test N1 required), up to 10 credits can be counted toward your MBA degree. (Approval of course professor required.)

Required Courses 8 credits

The required courses help students to develop conceptual understanding and critical thinking and analytical skills as a foundation for their major project.

- Critical and Analytical Thinking
- Master’s Thesis and Research Project I
- Master’s Thesis and Research Project II
- Master’s Thesis and Research Project III

Japanese Language and Culture Courses

Doshisha’s Center for Japanese Language and Culture (CJLC) offers a wide range of courses for international students studying in undergraduate and graduate programs at Doshisha. A certain number of these courses are open to Global MBA students, free of charge. Please note, however, that these courses cannot be included in the 46 credits required for the MBA degree.
Career and Alumni Network

Career Advancement

An MBA is an investment in your future, whether you are looking to change careers or to move into a managerial position in your present field. Today’s job market for MBAs is strong. According to a corporate recruiter’s survey conducted by the Graduate Management Admissions Council (GMAC), demand for business school graduates is particularly high in Asia Pacific with 81% of companies surveyed planning to hire MBA holders in 2020.

Japanese Firms Recruiting International Students

With a shrinking domestic market and a generation of young Japanese that tends to look more inward than abroad, Japanese companies are sharply increasing their recruitment of non-Japanese as they expand their global operations. What these companies seek in their non-Japanese recruits are language ability, an understanding of Japanese business practices, strong drive, and the communication skills and perspective that come from experience in a multicultural environment.

Corporate Internships

Corporate internships offer students a chance to apply what they’ve learned in the classroom to the real world, to experience business practices first-hand, and to expand their network of business connections. They also give students and companies a chance to get to know each other, and can lead to employment opportunities after graduation.

Many Global MBA students do internships, either in Japan or overseas. Among the business areas they have worked in are market entry research, business development, data analysis, diversity management, and corporate communications. Students may also use an internship as part of the research for their Master’s Thesis or Research Project Report.

Career Resources

Our career center provides resources, information, and advice on employment opportunities, job fairs, and the job-hunting process to help you explore and realize your career goals. We regularly invite external speakers to provide seminars for MBA students and coordinate with the university for on-site recruitment events.

Our career services include:
- Career assessment and planning
- Resume and cover letter writing assistance
- Job interview coaching
- One-on-one career consultation
- Up-to-date job listings
- E-Career web portal
- Career fairs, recruiting events, and workshops
- Contact list of recent graduates

Where Do Our Graduates Work?

While many of our students seek positions with established companies in Japan and abroad, a growing number look to develop their own businesses or join up-and-coming small and medium enterprises. With the skills and international experience gained during their MBA studies, our graduates are prepared to work in a range of companies and environments.

A few of the well-known companies our graduates have gone on to work for include:
- Amazon.com, Inc. (China)
- Bosch Vietnam Co., Ltd. (Vietnam)
- Calsonic Kansai
- Daimler Trucks Asia
- Daikin Corporation
- Dell Inc. Japan
- Ekorn (South Africa)
- Hitachi Capital Corporation
- Hitachi Construction Machinery
- iTOCHU Corporation

Note: Information accurate as of December 2020.
Doshisha University’s Imadegawa Campus is located in the center of Kyoto City near the spacious, park-like Kyoto Imperial Palace and is easily accessible by subway or bus. Imadegawa Campus is home to a range of academic facilities including libraries, media centers, and the Learning Commons, a 2,550m² study space equipped with a wide variety of the latest information technology and specialized spaces where students can bring their ideas to life. Low-cost cafeterias, a student health center, and counseling center are also conveniently located on campus creating a robust support system for students.

The university encourages exchange between local and international students through efforts such as establishing international lounges, maintaining a student organization under the Office of International Students to plan and hold intercultural events, and offering the International Peer Support Program to help international students adjust to life in Japan and at Doshisha.

University Facilities and Support

Doshisha Business School Facilities

The Business School is located in the modern Kambaikan Building on Doshisha’s Imadegawa (Muromachi) Campus. Our facilities include classrooms, project rooms, lounges, and a dedicated business school library. The lounges, project rooms, and library are open to MBA students 24/7, 365 days a year. The school has Wi-Fi internet access and full security is ensured for students studying late at night.
A safe, exciting, and fascinating country — and one fully integrated into the dynamic Asian economy — Japan is an excellent place to study for your MBA. Doshisha Business School is located in the ancient capital of Kyoto, which lies at the heart of the broader Kansai economy.

Kyoto – Ancient Capital and Modern City

Home to 17 UNESCO World Heritage sites, Kyoto is the location of choice for innovators, academics, and all those wishing to surround themselves with a fascinating balance of the past, present, and future. While traditional Kyoto draws tourists from all over the globe to its temples and gardens, modern Kyoto offers everything that the resident or visitor could desire: exciting shopping districts, a safe and fun nightlife, a variety of natural and spiritual pursuits and institutions, and access to Japan’s international hub cities of Osaka and Kobe. The Kansai region of Japan (centered around Kyoto-Osaka-Kobe) offers a multicultural environment with China-towns, Korea-towns, and a huge range of cultural and entertainment events.

Kansai – A Global Business Hub

With the largest number of manufacturers in the country, Kansai is regarded as the industrial heart of Japan and is deeply connected with the broader Asian economy. Many leading Japanese companies, including Nintendo, Panasonic, Kawasaki, Itochu, Sharp, Daihatsu, Daikin, Kyocera, and Omron, were established or are headquartered in the region, and Doshisha Business School maintains strong relationships with local industry. With cutting-edge research institutes and dozens of universities, Kansai is a major R&D center, boasting a large number of high-tech science parks and next-generation industrial clusters. Many leading multinationals, including AstraZeneca, Bayer Healthcare, P&G, Haier, Recaro, and Nestlé, have also chosen Kansai as their Japanese base.

Based on good reviews from past graduates and the sustainability aspect of the program, I decided to join. As I'm writing this Corona is striking at the heart of our global societies, almost certain to irrevocably change the way we live, think and do business for the foreseeable future. Moving forward, I have a sense that the demand for more sustainable ways of living and doing business is only going to grow larger. I’m hoping the new skills and knowledge I learn will help me meet the challenges of an ever changing business landscape, plus help create future utilising technology, sustainable methods and innovative ideas to deal with climate change and other challenges of the 21st century.

Nick Linnan
U.S.A.

I am overjoyed to begin the global MBA program at Doshisha University this year. Doshisha University has always been an institution that I have admired, and I quickly fell in love with the breathtaking landscapes of Kyotu. Since the beginning, I was drawn to the global aspect of this program. It is a privilege to work alongside my fellow students from all around the world. Thanks to them I can broaden my perspective and I hope that I can impart some of my knowledge onto them as well. After graduating I aspire to establish my own company that can strengthen the bond between Japan and the U.S. I have no doubts that the academic and social environments at Doshisha University will allow me to make a positive impact on the world.

Wong Laam Fai

I had been studying in Japan for six years. After I graduated from Doshisha University for my bachelor degree, I decided to continue my student life in Doshisha for my personal development and future career. After I enrolled in DBS I met and studied together with many brilliant students from different cultural backgrounds from all around the world and learned a lot from kind and patient professors who led us with helpful skills and knowledge to succeed in our future careers. DBS facilities are advanced and user-friendly, they provide a comfortable environment and atmosphere to help so that students can gain new knowledge and study mood to increase our academic efficiency. Also, DBS office staff are considerate and informative, always being prepared to provide us with useful information when we have problems about school and life in Japan.

DBS has exceeded my expectations for “education guided by conscience”. I joined DBS to pilot my corporate career from environmental management to green business development. Currently, I am gaining experience in sustainable business development at SoftBank Corp., in Tokyo. The faculty imparted a variety of tools for design and critical thinking, quality research, and personal reflection. These tools and my experience empower me to address business challenges. I zoom out to understand the context of business operations and zoom in to analyse the details of business issues. This enables me to create data driven solutions and effectively communicate my results. I am grateful for my time and growth at DBS.

Kai Harris
U.S.A.

I think one of the best parts of joining DBS was the diversity of the students in our year. I learned a lot from working in groups with classmates who come from different backgrounds and had different sets of beliefs and ways of operating. I believe this experience will be incredibly helpful in my future career when I work with teams who are different from myself. Even if you have different opinions from someone else, it is important to try and understand where they are coming from and find ways to function cohesively as a team and I think this will apply especially to working at an international company in a foreign country. In our home countries we are countries way of thinking, and back in undergraduate pretty much all of my friends were North American and thought like North Americans, but now, being removed from this environment I have friends from around the globe. I am able to notice times when they think the same as me and times when we have totally different ideas about how to handle a certain situation. As the working world becomes more and more connected I think this understanding will gain additional value.

Hsin Ho

Back in 2018, the time I was deciding which school for studying MBA, I imagined that I can polish my financial and language skills and become an international talent through MBA studies. By studying together with classmates from over 20 countries, I earned the precious experience of having teamwork with people from different cultures and backgrounds. We came up with strategies for real management which are effective to expand business in the class of Marketing, and also learned how to apply programming to solve problems and conduct data analysis in the class of Sustainable Human Resource Management. Additionally, the school offers students many resources, such as scholarships, Japanese classes, and career consulting for pursuing a better future. I am glad that I chose to join the GMBA program of DBS in the end, since what it gave me is far beyond my expectations, and I will achieve career success with what I learned in the GMBA program.

Studying abroad is a dream for many of us. And like a dream, the idea fits with the impossible. There are always excuses on our minds on why we shouldn’t decide on leaving our home country, our family, friends, our jobs… our whole lives. For those who dare to upgrade their education and live a marvelous experience in the heart of Japan with classmates coming from a wide array of cultures, the Global MBA makes a perfect choice. Based on good reviews from past graduates, the whole MBA degree English based, the faculty members are very experienced and passionate professors in their area of expertise. Plus, the Business School Office helps throughout the entire admission process in a smooth way. If you have the intention to work in Japan after graduation, the Career Development Center also walks along your side to help you find a desirable job. Stop hesitating and decide on turning your dream into reality.

My study experience in Doshisha Business School could be described as a fantastic learning process. It is not a usual taught program of graduate school but innovative and creative courses which provide us with freedom of thinking and room for developing our own potential. During my study in DBS, I have treasured every opportunity to do the things which I have never tried, such as making videos of my place of origin “Hong Kong” in the project of “weCare SDGs 2030 Doshisha Business School”, interviewing representatives of a famous and long-established local brand of all blotting paper in Kyotu, i.e. “Hoyus” for a project of one of our classes, participating in Japanese MBA classes; performing walking meditation as a group project; and many more in the Global MBA Program. The past two years in DBS formed a remarkable memory of mine and made me love Doshisha University a lot.
Admission and Scholarships

Admissions Process
Doshisha Business School welcomes applications from motivated and ambitious persons – regardless of age, gender, or nationality – seeking to explore the frontiers of business management and improve the well-being of our society. Our admissions process is designed to evaluate the whole person and to establish a positive ‘fit’ between applicants and our MBA program.

As part of the application process each applicant can request a preliminary interview, where general and specific requirements for acceptance to Global Business and Management Studies can be discussed individually and in more detail with a Global Business and Management Studies professor. Applicants who go on to submit a formal application must pass a formal interview, which can be completed via Zoom or in-person at Doshisha Business School. Eligibility requirements and the application process are explained in detail in our admissions guide.
